FIRST INFORMATION REPORT (SYNTHETIC TRAINING DOCUMENT - ALL PERSONS AND EVENTS ARE FICTIONAL)

FIR No.: 0412/2026 Police Station: Nandipur Kotwali (fictional) Date of report: 06 September 2026

Offence (provisional): Criminal intimidation and extortion

1. Complainant: Nisha Bose, owner of a stationery shop in Ward 7, Nandipur.

2. Narrative: The complainant states that since 20 August 2026 she has received repeated threatening phone calls demanding a monthly payment in return for "protection" of her shop. The caller is stated to have been identified by a neighbouring shopkeeper, Abhay Dubey, who recognised the voice and the motorcycle used by the person who visited the shop. The complainant names the caller as Dev Saxena. She states that Dev Saxena told her the demand was made on behalf of Sahil Verma and that any complaint would be dealt with "by the people above". The complainant adds that an acquaintance of the group, Rohan Mehta, telephoned her on two occasions offering to "settle the matter" if she paid on time.

3. Payments: The complainant states she transferred several amounts by UPI to Dev Saxena between 21 August and 5 September 2026 out of fear.

4. Witness: Abhay Dubey, whose shop is adjacent, has agreed to give a statement.

5. Action: Registered. Call records for the complainant's number and her payment records are requested for the investigating officer. No arrest has been made. This FIR records allegations only; they are unverified.

Investigating officer: SI Meenakshi Thapliyal (fictional)
