FIRST INFORMATION REPORT (SYNTHETIC TRAINING DOCUMENT - ALL PERSONS AND EVENTS ARE FICTIONAL)

FIR No.: 0437/2026 Police Station: Nandipur Cyber Cell (fictional) Date of report: 19 September 2026

Offence (provisional): Cheating through an online investment scheme

1. Complainant: Tanvi Rao, school teacher, resident of Ward 12, Nandipur.

2. Narrative: The complainant states that in early August 2026 she was contacted through a messaging group offering guaranteed monthly returns on a "commodity trading plan". Two persons posing as advisers, who later turned out to be account holders Manav Joshi and Ira Gupta, repeatedly telephoned her and asked her to transfer funds in instalments to their personal accounts. She transferred amounts between 6 August and 14 September 2026 and received no returns.

3. Bank enquiry note: A preliminary note from the complainant's bank indicates that funds received by Manav Joshi and Ira Gupta were forwarded within a day to an account in the name of Kavya Nair. The complainant does not know Kavya Nair. Whether Kavya Nair is the final beneficiary or only an intermediary is not known at this stage.

4. Action: Registered. Account statements and call records of the named account holders are to be requested. This FIR records allegations and a bank note only; no person has been found guilty of any offence.

Investigating officer: Inspector Harbans Lekhi (fictional)
