FIRST INFORMATION REPORT (SYNTHETIC TRAINING DOCUMENT - ALL PERSONS AND EVENTS ARE FICTIONAL)

FIR No.: 0451/2026 Police Station: Nandipur Highway Outpost (fictional) Date of report: 26 September 2026

Offence (provisional): Theft of goods in transit

1. Complainant: Abhay Dubey, proprietor of a small road-transport business, Ward 7, Nandipur.

2. Narrative: The complainant states that on the night of 23 September 2026 a truck carrying electrical goods under his company's contract left the yard and did not reach its destination. The consignment route and departure time were known only to his dispatcher, Aarav Iyer, who has been on leave since the incident and is not answering calls. The driver states that on the previous evening he saw Sahil Verma at the loading yard speaking with the dispatcher. The goods were invoiced to a consignee named Kavya Nair, whom the complainant says he has never dealt with before. A person who introduced himself on the phone as Rohan Mehta had enquired about the same route a week earlier, according to the driver.

3. Action: Registered. Dispatch logs, call records of the dispatcher and invoice payment details are to be collected. No recovery has been made. The roles above are allegations by the complainant and driver only and have not been verified.

Investigating officer: SI Meenakshi Thapliyal (fictional)
